Board Retreat, November 9th

Gary Chapin

Social begins at 8:30am, board session begins at 9:00am. Board members will participate in a working lunch in order to complete the retreat by 3:00pm. Location still to be determined.

KLTV Mission Statement

Gary Chapin

*Gary Chapin presents board members with several examples of mission statements. Discussion began around appropriate language to use in the mission station mention. Erin Zeiger had a question about the term "video capture" and the importance of using language suitable to all types of audiences. Bill Marcum shares that mention of connection to community is missing from all of the mission samples. KLTV inspires, educates and connects community... KLTV connects the people of Cowlitz County through media technology to build a stronger community.... Final Mission Statement as agreed upon by the KLTV Board of Directors: "KLTV provides communication resources to build a stronger community, through civic engagement, access, and education."
